Brighter Than Big Strike Will Be Delayed or Settled

PRES. WILSON SEES MEN

Managers Will Meet President Late Today—Conferences May Result in New Plan of Arbitration—May Ask Congress to Pass Eight-Hour Law—No Counter Proposition Made

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 14.—Prospects for averting a nation-wide railway strike, or at least for the formulation of some tentative program which will be the ground work for further negotiation, brightened today after President Wilson had conferred with 35 chiefs of the great brotherhoods.

After the conference the brotherhood men declared the President's grasp of the situation and the position of the men might result in an understanding being reached and others in touch with the conference said the representatives of the men showed a disposition to co-operate to avoid a strike.

After hearing the leaders of the men two hours, the President sent for the managers for a conference at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

How far whatever progress made at the conference with the men can go toward averting a break, cannot be determined until after the president confers with the managers committee.

The President, it was said, submitted no counter proposition to the men but he held out hope for an adjustment by legislation if necessary.

The impression prevailed among the brotherhood leaders that as a last resort the President might ask congress for 8-hour day legislation.

The leaders explained to the President their stand against arbitration by saying that they were carrying out the wishes of the 600 delegates who sat with them at their meeting with the federal mediators.

The delegates, the President was told, in voting on whether they should accept or reject the mediators proposal to arbitrate, voted unanimously for rejection.

The brotherhood leaders presented to the President detailed reports of the vote cast in favor of a general strike.

"The chief objection to the existing form of arbitration on the part of the brotherhood," said Garretson today, "centers on the difficulty that has been experienced in selecting neutral arbitrators who could do justice to the cause of the men. In the past there have been neutral arbitrators of high standing and intelligence such as Mr. John H. Finley of New York and Seth Low, former mayor. No matter how honest their intentions they could not bring to bear on the questions at issue the disinterestedness necessary. Finley's future relies entirely on the direction of corporate influences while Low, although honest, was surely influenced by the fact that he is a large owner of stocks and bonds."

"The appointment of neutral arbitrators in the past under the provisions of the Newland's act have damned arbitration as a practical proposition in the minds of the minds of the men."

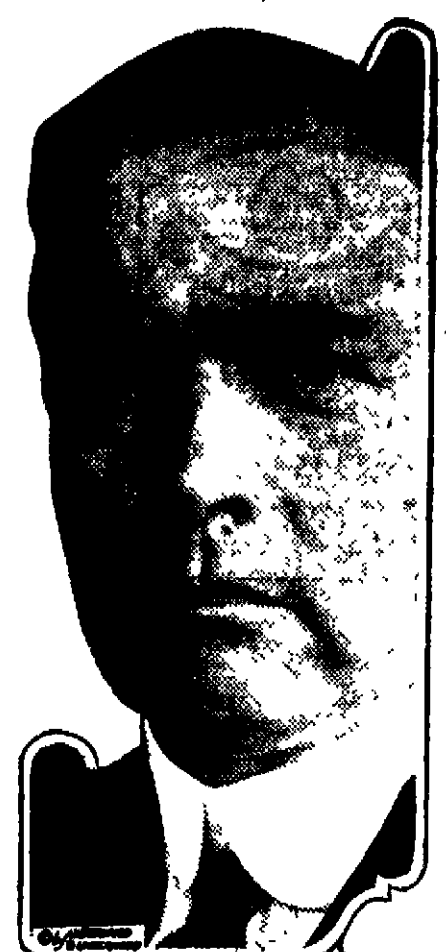

W. L. Chambers of the federal mediators, conferred with President Wilson early this morning and arranged for the conferences. There was a suggestion that the President might urge an arbitration by a board of 12 members so that each of the railroad brotherhoods could be represented. The President, it was indicated very clearly, would appeal to both employers and men on the highest patriotic grounds to meet and settle their differences without resort to strike.

The discussion this morning it was learned centered largely about the possibility of reaching an agreement on some form of arbitration and particular attention was paid to the subject of arbitration.

It was considered possible that a tentative agreement would provide for arbitration of the demands of the men for an 8-hour day and for time and a half overtime with the elimination of the counter proposals of the employers.

The railroads have wanted to arbitrate their counter proposals and that the men resisted. They were first inclined to arbitrate their demands but later indicated their disinclination to arbitrate anything.

RECEPTION FOR GEORGE H. MOSSER WEDNESDAY EVE.

The new Chamber of Commerce of Newark will hold a reception and six o'clock dinner at the Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, August 16, to meet Mr. George H. Mosser, the new manager of the Newark Chamber of Commerce.

It is important that every member be present to show his interest and enthusiasm, that Mr. Mosser may know the organization is willing to support him by the members doing their part.

"Let us start right by having a rousing big membership meeting to greet him," is the request made by the president and the secretary.

The committee in charge of the dinner requests prompt response on postal cards sent out today so some estimate can be made as to the number expecting to attend.

FLANKS

Of Gen. Von Bothmer's Army in Galicia Are Under Pressure

ITALIANS ARE UNCHECKED

Austrian Line East of Hill 212 is Pierced and 800 of the Defenders Are Taken Prisoners—British Claim to Hold New Positions Taken Along the Pozieres Front

The Russian drive in Galicia is pushing the Austro-German armies backwards towards Lemberg at a rapid rate.

Both flanks of General Count von Bothmer's army on the Lemberg front are under heavy pressure and its center, forced from the line of the Stripa is acceded by military observers in entente capitals to have none too secure a position in its rear along the Upper Zlota Lipa to which it is presumed to be retreating.

Petrograd today announces new gains for the Russians on the northern wing of this front, on the Upper Sereth while today on the south General Letchitzky is continuing his thrust up the Dniester in the vicinity of Mariampol seven miles from Halicz.

The Russian armies in the center also are pursuing the Austrians in the middle Stripa and Koropice regions.

Continuing their advance from Gorizia on the Isonzo front the Italians have made further progress on the Carso plateau to the south-east.

Rome reports the piercing of a strongly defended Austrian line east of Hill 212 and the capture of about 800 additional men. The Austrians are sharply attacking along other sectors of the front but were repulsed in all attempts, the Italian war office announces.

Following the usual course the Germans have sharply counter attacked along the line west of Pozieres which London last night reported the British to have carried to a depth of 300 or 400 yards on a front of nearly a mile. The attack was partly successful, the Germans gaining a foothold in a portion of the lost trenches.

Following up their gains on the north bank of the Somme the French are pushing their advance to a point where German evacuation of Clercy, commanding the direct approach to Peronne from the northwest may be compelled. Fighting is being continued in the Maurepas sector north-west of Clercy, where brisk cannonading is reported today. To the left of the Fay-Denicourt road a French attack resulted in carrying some trenches.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Albion, N. Y., Aug. 14.—District Attorney Knickerbocker of Orleans county announced today that Erwin King had repudiated the confession he made at Little Valley, August 10, that he was guilty of the murder of Charles Phelps, and his housekeeper, Mary Wolcott, at West Chelby, March 22, 1915. Charles Stielow, now in Sing Sing prison under sentence of death for the same murder, but was reprieved recently on the day set for his execution. Stielow's friends believed King's confession would save the life of the condemned man. The district attorney says King made his statement to a committee of citizens of Orleans county while no prosecuting officials nor police were present.

It is said King gave the reasons that actuated him when he made his confession but the district attorney did not make public that portion of the statement.

RACES MEET IN TUG OF WAR ON MEXICAN BORDER

Negro troopers and white troopers in tug of war to relieve monotonous inaction of border camp life.

Troopers encamped on the border with nothing to relieve the monotony of camp life save the daily drills, must have something with which to keep their minds and bodies occupied. There are many athletes of note among them, and sports of all kinds are indulged in, including baseball, tugs of war between different troops, tennis, track races and various other athletic games. The troopers recently held a regular field-day patterned after college events of like character, and all the boys, on account of the rivalry existing between every camp, fight for every inch of advantage.

FULTON LEADS WITH 2 COUNTIES STILL MISSING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Aug. 14.—Returns from last Tuesday's state primary were still missing from Hamilton, Licking and Medina counties at the secretary of state's office today. Until these counties report, the nomination for secretary of state on the Democratic ticket and the second nomination for judge of the supreme court on the Republican ticket will not be definitely decided.

Returns from 85 counties on the Democratic race for secretary of state, give William D. Fulton of Newark 36,796 to 33,453 for J. Henry Newman of Columbus. From unofficial figures sent out from the missing counties, it is believed Fulton will hold his lead.

The figures on the Republican side show that James Joyce of Cambridge leads the candidates for nomination for the supreme court bench with 90,891 votes in the 85 counties while Willis Vickery of Lakewood and Augustus N. Summers of Springfield are running close for the other position. Vickery now has 64,716 votes and Summers 60,601.

In Licking county Mr. Fulton was given a plurality of 2232, which, added to the plurality given in the other 85 counties already reported to the secretary of state gives the Newark candidate a lead of 5,575 over Mr. Newman. The Licking county official figures were forwarded Saturday night and should have been in the Columbus office this morning.

Another Caucus On Revenue Bill; Some Taxes Cut

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 14.—Senate Democrats will caucus again tonight to consider and further the finance committee's amendment to the revenue bill, including the wine and stamp sections.

At yesterday caucus, the Democrats agreed to a stock license on corporations to yield about $20,000,000, elimination of most of the objectionable stamp taxes which had once been accepted and approved, an amendment to the munitions section which would reduce the net profit tax on manufacturers of materials entering into munitions of war from 10 per cent as proposed by the finance committee to five per cent.

In addition to passing on what stamp taxes shall be retained, the caucus is expected to vote on Senator Lewis' resolution, offered yesterday, to defer action on the revenue bill until the next session of congress and to authorize a Panama canal bond issue to meet the government's expenses up to that time.

TOLEDO WOMEN LOAN BABIES TO GET ICE SUPPLY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Aug. 14.—Loaning babies to be used as ice cards is the latest invention of Toledo housewives during the ice famine. The plan worked to the satisfaction of at least three families but when the same baby was loaned to a fourth woman and duly exhibited when the ice man appeared, the latter became suspicious. It developed that one baby had been passed along the line to four women, it having been announced that ice would be delivered to those who had babies.

NO RELAXATION IN THE FIGHT ON INFANT PLAGUE

Because of the change in the weather and the fact that strict precautionary measures have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease, the local health board and local physicians are of the opinion that the danger of further spread of infantile paralysis in this city is remote. Besides the one case discovered Thursday, no other cases have been reported. Minor Williams, aged four, son of Perry Williams, 524 Maple avenue, according to the report of Dr. Leland Baxter, is progressing better than anticipated. It is thought that the child will be paralyzed only in the right leg, although when he was first stricken, the disease had affected other members of the body.

Two other families in the vicinity and still under quarantine and two other children and one family are quarantined.

Because of the existence of the one case in the city and the spread of the disease in other cities, Health Officer Dr. W. H. Knauss thinks it unwise to relax precautionary measures at the present time.

MILK STRIKE IN CLEVELAND ENDS.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Aug. 14.—All of the striking milk wagon drivers returned to work at the Telling-Belle Vernon and Schneider-Becker. Milk plants this morning and Cleveland milk deliveries are again normal following a three day interruption.

By the terms of the agreement the men will receive advances amounting to $10 a month and the union is recognized. Employers succeeded in obtaining an abrogation of the closed shop clause, but they will bind themselves to make no terms with individual employees that are of variance with the terms the union has agreed to accept.

The public will likely feel the effect of the strike this fall when milk companies threaten to boost prices of pints and quarts one cent.

"The cost of the advance in wages to the men has increased overhead expenses," said L. R. Pulliam, Telling-Belle Vernon director. "This, combined with the price increase to be made by producers, will necessitate higher cost to the public."

SUFFRAGISTS WILL MEET SEPT. 6; ATLANTIC CITY.

The presidential candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties have been invited to present their views of suffrage to the convention and other distinguished men and women will deliver addresses.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Willis, Columbus, Aug. 14.—With no official word from war department officials backing up news dispatches from Washington Saturday to the effect that the Ohio national guardsmen are to be sent to the Mexican border "as soon as equipped," guard officers were waiting anxiously awaiting some definite word and in the meantime were making ready wherever possible so the least possible time would be required when the final word "go" arrived.

TENSION

In Business Circles Over Strike Situation Is Noticeable

A NATIONAL CALAMITY

Practically Every Industry in Country Would Be Affected—Suspension of Passenger Traffic Would Leave Thousands Away From Home On Vacation Trips

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Aug. 14.—If President Wilson fails to persuade the railroad men and their employers to settle their differences and a general break of the strike is called it will be directed from headquarters in this city. This announcement was made today as the leaders of the four big railway brotherhoods and the railroad managers approached Washington for a conference with the president.

At the brotherhood headquarters it was said that all preparations had been made for putting into effect a strike that would stop every train, passenger and freight, on the 225 railway systems of the United States.

"Unless the president can find a road out it means a strike," said A. B. Garretson, president of the Order of Railway Trainmen and official spokesman of the employees as he boarded the train for Washington at midnight. Ellisha Lee, chairman of the conference committee of railroad managers, who with the 18 members of his committee went to Washington on the same train that carried the 30 representatives of the brotherhood delegates placed responsibility upon the men for the failure of attempts at mediation. Mr. Garretson said that the unbending attitude of the railroad managers was to blame for the break.

The conference committee of the railroads and the leaders of the four brotherhoods, went to Washington in answer to summons from President Wilson brought here last night by Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president. The president in his letter pointed out that a general strike at this time might have a disastrous effect upon the country, and said: "I feel that I have the right therefore, to request, and I do hereby request, as the head of the government, that before any final decision is arrived at, I may have a personal conference with you here."

The tension in business circles here today showed a realization of the acute danger of a national calamity. The president's letter pointed out that a general strike at this time might have a disastrous effect upon the country, and said: "I feel that I have the right therefore, to request, and I do hereby request, as the head of the government, that before any final decision is arrived at, I may have a personal conference with you here."

Of more immediate seriousness would be the question of food supplies. The large communities which receive the bulk of their food from long distance would be forced to rely on what products could be brought in by wagon, trolley or vessel.

The suspension of the country's exports, the congestion of hundreds of thousands of travelers and summer resort visitors far from their homes—these are other possibilities which the strike situation presents, to say nothing of its effect on the railroads themselves and their employees.

The total capitalization of the railroads in the country amounts to more than $20,000,000,000 and their gross revenue has been estimated at more than $4,000,000,000 on the basis of recent reports.

The latest estimates available show that the railways operate 251,944 miles of tracks and transport annually 1,033,679,880 passengers. The passenger cars have been computed at 51,700 and other cars at 2,393,808.

BOAT CAME NEAR GOING OVER A DAM

Mr. and Mrs. Ott Vogelmeier and Mr. and Mrs. William Priest who are enjoying an auto trip in New York state had a thrilling experience Saturday in Rochester, which they will long remember. They had autored from Buffalo and put their car in a garage and were taking a boat ride on the Genesee river at High Water when the boat became caught in an undercurrent and started towards the river dam at that point. Their plight was discovered by employees of the Erie freight house and a launch hastened to their assistance reaching the boat and throwing a line when they were within a hundred feet of the dam. Had they gone over the same party might have been drowned. Messrs. Vogelmeier and Priest in writing to friends in this city state that hereafter when they want to take a boat ride it will be in a stock pond where the water isn't over two feet deep.

His Idea of Justice.
A well known Philadelphia lawyer tells of an enterprising man in that city who retained him to prosecute an action. Consultation with the plaintiff's witnesses revealed the fact that their stories were most conflicting and consequently far from convincing. This fact was communicated by the lawyer to his client, and the latter was advised to drop the suit. After some hesitation the client said that he would have a talk with the witnesses and the next day inform the lawyer what he would do in the matter. The next day the client appeared, quite cheerful and with the air of a man who has won a good fight.

"I have talked to all witnesses," said he, "and they all say they must have been mistaken when they conferred with you. They all see it alike now. I have also seen some of the jurymen, and they think I will win. Now, if there is such a thing as justice in law, we can't lose."—Chicago Herald.

Rebuked the Judge.
Of all the retorts made by barristers on unjust judges that recorded by Charles Phillips, the famous pleader of the central criminal court, London, is perhaps best remembered. Phillips, addressing a jury in defense of a man on trial for murder, was much embarrassed by the repeated interpositions of the judge, Baron Gurney, distinguished as one of the old fashioned "hanging" school of British jurists.

Phillips, keeping his Irish temper well under control to the end, "got home" with this passage in the peroration of his address, looking full at Gurney the while:

"There are those on the bench who have the reputation of being 'convicting' judges. I neither envy them their reputation in this world nor their fate in the next."—London Globe.

Helping the Congregation.

The following notice was recently exhibited in a certain large church: "The service on Sunday morning is at 11 a. m. The supposition that it is ten minutes later is a mistake."

"Young men are not excluded from the week night service."

"The seats in the front portion of the church have been carefully examined. They are quite sound and may be trusted not to give way."

"It is quite legitimate to join in the singing. The object of the choir is to encourage, not to discourage, the congregation."—Exchange.

When Icebergs Are Near.

Icebergs indicate their presence by a "blink" in the sky long before they may be seen. This blink is a path of sky above them lighter than that surrounding. It is caused by their capacity of refracting the sunlight or moonlight. An iceberg in a fog looks black. If of any height it will send back an echo when the whistle is blown. "By noting the time between the blast of the whistle and the reflected sound," say the men of the hydrographic office, "the distance of the object in feet may be approximately found by multiplying by 550."

No Use.

"George, dear," said his mother, "you have been Mr. Coyne's office boy for nearly a year now, and he hasn't raised your salary yet. Can't you do something to attract his attention so he'll know you're alive?" "I've tried that, mother," answered George. "I tipped the inkstand over this morning and spilled ink all over his white vest, and it didn't seem to help a bit."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

What You See.
"It is amazing," said the young man, "how it happens that when you have a swell girl on your arm and you are only 25 cents strong you will see restaurants in every spot where the day before there were only vacant lots."—Exchange.

Chinese Wisdom.
If princes knew to speak and women to keep silent, courtiers to say what they thought and servants to conceal it, the whole world would be at peace.—Chinese Proverb.

An Invitation.
"I suppose," he said, "that you would scream if I attempted to kiss you?" "What a pessimist you are!" she replied.—London Telegraph.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Feeding Babies.
No baby is able to digest starch before it is five months old. This is a fact well known to all physiologists and to all physicians who make a specialty of children. In a recent address before the Royal College of Physicians in London Dr. S. G. Moore, health officer of Huddersfield, said: "Sorely it is not too much to ask that an infant be not slowly starved to death by having administered to it a substance which does not nourish it. The mind reels before a contemplation of the number of infants who have been slowly done to death in this horrible fashion during the past fifty years."

Too few mothers know that bread, potatoes, rice, cornstarch and such things cannot be digested by a baby's stomach. Mother's milk is the only safe food for infants. If it be necessary to resort to artificial feeding, then carefully sterilized cow's or goat's milk can be used, but never anything that contains starch.

CONGRESS PROMOTES GEN. JOHN L. CLEM TO MAJOR GENERAL

The house and senate has passed the bill introduced by Representative William A. Ashbrook, promoting General John L. Clem to the rank of major general. This bill will retire General Clem with the highest pay in the regular army, the salary of a major general being $8,000 per year.

Congressman Ashbrook is to be commended for the interest he has taken in the matter. He has been trying for six years to secure the passage of the bill and his efforts have finally been crowned with success.

The promotion of General Clem to the rank of major general, the highest in the United States army is a deserved tribute to the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," and will be pleasing news to his legion of friends all over the country.

CORONER SEEKS RELATIVES OF MAN WHO DIED SUDDENLY

A man whose identity cannot be learned was found dead in his room at the boarding house of G. L. Lieber, 342 Beech street this morning about 3:30 o'clock, when employees went to call him to go to work.

He had been at the boarding house since Friday evening, but gave no name and there were no marks on his clothing, nor on anything he possessed to tell who he was. He stated he had worked in the oil fields and could not pay his bill on Saturday until he had a check cashed. He went down street and later in the day returned with plenty of money. He ate supper Saturday night and Sunday night at the boarding house for which he paid.

When his room was searched to-day he had no effects except $4.00 in money, not even a coat. Dr. J. L. Jackson, the coroner was called and said death was due to apoplexy and an effort is being made to identify him.

He is an American about 48 years old, has gray eyes and dark complexion. His hair is very dark, streaked with gray and he wore a short, black moustache. On his left arm was tattooed the letters, J. M. S.; his height is 5 feet, 9 inches.

Inquiry at Utica where there are a number of men employed in the oil fields brought no result and inquiry at the bank where he was supposed to have had the check cashed showed that the check had not been cashed there.

The body was removed to the undertaking parlors of Clarence Egan in East Main street, while an effort is made to establish his identity.

Curious Experiment.

Take a piece of pasteboard or heavy paper about five inches square; roll it into a tube, with one end just large enough to fit around the eye and the other end smaller. Hold the tube between the thumb and first finger of the right hand (do not grasp it with the whole hand); put the large end close against the right eye and with the left hand hold a book with the edge squarely against the side of the tube. Be sure to keep both eyes open and there will appear to be a hole through the book and objects seem as if seen through the hole instead of through the tube. The left hand can be held against the tube instead of the book, and the hole will seem to be through the hand.

Call Ball.

This game is good fun and is best played out of doors with eight or ten players. One is chosen to toss the ball, and each player is given a number. The players take positions not farther than the ball can easily be thrown. The tosser, when throwing the ball, calls one of the players by his number—8, 10, 2, or whatever he may choose. The player of that number must run and catch the ball, not letting it bound more than once. A good tosser keeps the players on the alert, guessing who will be called next, and by sometimes calling one at a good distance from himself excitement is lent to the game.

Boy Scouts Under Canvas.

Reports which have come to the national headquarters of the Boy Scouts of America movement in New York city from all sections of the country indicate that there are more boy scouts under canvas this summer than ever before in the history of the organization. Scout camps have been established in practically every larger scout center in the country. In some of these camps as many as 1,500 boys will receive the benefits of outdoor life and training in the fascinating and practical subjects of scout craft.

Shadow Tag.

The player who is "it" tries to step or jump on to the shadow of some other player and if successful calls out the name of the player. That player then becomes "it." Children should keep in the sunshiny places where a shadow can easily be made.

Eight cats.

YOUR CAR IS NEEDED FOR KIDS PICNIC

The kiddie picnic day is drawing near and twenty-five more autos are needed to transport the youngsters to the lake and back. The committee is having a hard time to secure the required number of machines. You wouldn't think such a thing possible in a city of 30,000 people with over 1,800 machines in the county, but it is true nevertheless. Seventy cars are required and only forty-five have signed up and declared their willingness to devote one day in the year 1916, to give enjoyment to 300 little ones whose parents have no auto.

The kids picnic will take place just the same, even if the committee in charge has to send to Columbus, Zanesville or some other place to secure enough machines, but it won't speak well for the liberality of Newark auto owners. Mr. Dick Curry is assisting the committee and is out today with a paper securing signatures for machines. You can assist him and greatly relieve those in charge by signing up for a car. Remember the picnic day is only three days off.

Dr. W. H. Knauss, health officer, states that the outing will be just the thing for the youngsters. Health authorities recommend open air living and outings for all children and he is sure the outing Thursday will benefit the children. He only advises against the public gathering of children in halls, closed rooms, etc. There will be a meeting of the committee tonight to complete final arrangements for the picnic. The little ones are going to have the time of their lives and will be given treats, a big dinner, a boat ride around the lake and a merry-go-round ride. When there will be dancing for them in the pavilion, by little Ruth Ledwig, Newark's child dancer and a wrestling match by the Tauscher Brothers. Besides these will be games, contests and other diversions.

POLICE FIND LOST FORD RIGHT WHERE OWNER PLACED IT

Did you ever see a "movie" outside of a motion picture theatre? The following photo-play was staged Saturday in the heart of Newark, but unfortunately no camera man was present to take pictures for scenic production.

LOST A FORD
INVISIBLE LIZZIE
Dramatic Personage.
A Farmer, Owner of Ford Chief of Police Jas. S. Sheridan
Patrolmen G. Abbott, E. Hurlbaugh
Scene 1. Street in front of saloon, South Park Place. Time, 3 o'clock in afternoon. Enter a farmer in a Ford. Face was dry, thirsty look. His mustache is parched and dry. Farmer looks up and down street anxiously. Sees saloon, assumes relieved manner and stops car. Goes to saloon door.
Scene 2. Setting same as scene 1. Ford car standing in front of saloon. Car has hazy appearance, and is almost invisible. Farmer comes out of saloon. Looks about for car. Does not see it. Shouts, "My touring car is stolen." Farmer runs in westward direction. Crowd gathers.
Scene 3. Indoors, police headquarters. Enter farmer, running in through open door. Exclaims, "Some city guy has stolen my Ford." Chief and Abbott take description of car, go to phone, and put in long distance call to points all over central Ohio. Chief dispatches Hurlbaugh to look around public square for car.
Scene 4. Setting same as scene 1. Same Ford standing in same place. Enter Hurlbaugh. Looks at license number on Ford. Stands by side of car. Enter farmer. Talks to patrolman. Farmer touches car to make sure it is there. Cranks car and gets in. Starts to drive away but stops and calls to patrolman and crowd that has gathered, "Bygones, I heard they could do most any thing, but I never before, heard tell of one of them hidin' thataway."

RECOVERY OF NEW JERSEY WOMAN

Due To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bridgeton, N. J.—"I cannot speak too highly of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for inflammation and other weaknesses. I was very irregular and would have terrible pains so that I could hardly take a step. Sometimes I would be so miserable that I could not sweep a room. I doctored part of the time but felt no change. I later took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and felt a change for the better after the second day. I took it until I was in a good healthy condition. I recommend the Pinkham remedies to all women as I have used them with good results."—Mrs. HILFORD T. CUMMINGS, 24 New Street, Bridgeton, N. J.
Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence of the excellence of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy for the distressing ills of women such as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, backache, painful periods, nervousness and blood ailments.

 JUST ABOUT EGGS. *****

A good home market is best. All so-called non-setting breeds are producers of white eggs. The double-yolked egg is no cause for rejoicing; it means an over-fat condition. Breeds that do the best winter laying generally lay brown eggs. Small eggs are often produced by excessive feeding of middlings. The good layer is a happy, singing contented hen. The size of the egg increases with the age of the hen. The male has no influence on egg production. The soft-shelled egg is due to either over-fat or lack of lime in the ration; sometimes both. Where the attention of the male becomes a perfect harassment, the nervous derangement may decrease the egg product. The fate of the egg farmer may lie in the marketing of one single bad egg. A hen's value as a winter egg producer lessens after her second year. Experiments have shown that better egg production is obtained from fowls kept confined than from those allowed to roam at will. The first eggs of the brown egg layer are rich in color, but as laying continues they become more pale. This is due to certain pigment from which the coloring comes, and which in its first strength is of good color. Infertile eggs are not spoiled for cooking, even if subjected to a heat of 103 degrees for a week.

A process has been invented in England for coloring wool various khaki and orange shades with dilute nitric acid without the use of natural or artificial dyes.

FUNERAL

OF PROFESSOR BRUMBACK IS HELD THIS AFTERNOON IN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Millard Brelsford Assisted By Dr. Williams Conducted the Services.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, Aug. 14.—The last sad tribute of love and esteem was paid to the memory of the late Prof. A. M. Brumback at 2:30 this afternoon in the Baptist church of which he was for many years a member and which to him was almost literally a second home. Townspeople, including faculty members and students resident in Granville this summer and many friends from out of town made up the great assemblage. Rev. Millard Brelsford assisted by C. L. Williams officiated and Prof. Willis A. Chamberlain, a Denison classmate of the deceased, had charge of the services. The pallbearers were men of the Denison faculty, Profs. T. A. Lewis, C. D. Coons, W. H. Johnson, T. S. Johnson, H. R. Kuntz, and Frank Garner. Professor Karl Eschman presided at the organ and Mrs. Marion Rose Johnson sang. The floral offerings were beautiful and the last resting place in Maple Grove was heaped high with these parting gifts from devoted friends.

Prof. Brumback is the first of the Class of 1892 to answer the summons and to break the link binding the members of this great class in the enduring bonds of friendship. Among the out of town relatives and friends who attended Prof. Brumback's funeral today were Mr. Bert Tuttle, Mr. Fred Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Richardson, brothers and sister of Mrs. Brumback, Dr. Winter, Miss Rebecca Brumback, Dr. Powell and several Sigma Chi men: Messrs. Frank Hall, Kenneth Hall and Fred Hall of Newark; Robert McCann, Henry Stout of Dayton; Karl Masteller, Mr. Vernon, Hobart Sutton and many others.

The program at the union meeting held in the Baptist church last evening was a pleasing departure from the usual Sunday night service, in which the mission of music was given large recognition. The organist, Mrs. Mabel Ashton, gave a varied and delightful twenty-minute program of organ music, preceding the regular service, which was highly appreciated. The choir under Miss Howland's direction sang Shelley's "Savior, When Night Involves the Sky," a quartet composed of Prof. and Mrs. E. P. Johnston, Miss Cornelia Spencer and Mr. Paul Curtis, gave a pleasing number and Mr. Curtis concluded the program with the effective rendering of "Somebody Knows." As a climax to the evening's uplift, Rev. T. F. Chambers, D. D., preached a splendid sermon on "The Paradoxes of the Gospel."

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Grace Sinsbaugh, only child of Mrs. Marie Sinsbaugh, to Mr. Claude Hamilton Smith, of Roseville, two of Denison's popular young people of the Class of 1917. It is to be a home wedding solemnized on September 12 and the prospective bride already is the center of attention among the younger set.

Mrs. L. R. Smith, her niece Miss Josephine Gaston and Miss Wallace of the Wallace School for Girls, all of Columbus, arrived in Granville Saturday for a few days visit among friends and have headquarters at the home of Judge and Mrs. J. M. Swartz in Elm street.

Miss Lilybell Sefton, assistant in chemistry in Denison university who has just completed the work for her Master Degree in O. S. U. returned to Granville on Saturday and has been at the Brumback home in North Pearl street.

Mrs. Charles Matthews (formerly Miss Mabel Butterfield) of Winfield, Kansas, with her little son Robert, is visiting Mrs. E. C. Roberts in South Cherry street. She will be joined by her husband who preached yesterday in Zanesville.

Jack Hurdley, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Hurdley, is spending a fortnight at the home of his uncle and aunt, Senator and Mrs. Rinehart, near White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Mrs. H. A. Nixon, two daughters, Misses Eva and Esther and one son, Harmon, have returned to their home in West Maple street after a pleasant vacation.

Charles Willis of Washington C. H., O., spent the week end in Granville with headquarters at the Beta house.

Mr. Harry Holderman, manager of the San Toy Mines, near Corning, was a week end visitor at Monomay Place, where he was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Holderman and his aunt, Miss Mollie Jones.

Mrs. William Kels of Kings Mills, O., arrived Saturday for a visit with her aunts, Mrs. Edith Stone and Miss Emma Wartenbee.

Mr. Henry Eschman of Drexden spent the week end with his son Karl Eschman. Wade Rinehart, a pianist of Oberlin, also was a guest.

Rev. Millard Brelsford was recalled from Cleveland this morning to officiate at the funeral service of Prof. A. M. Brumback this afternoon. Prof. C. W. Chamberlain hastened his return from New York and the east to attend Prof. Brumback's funeral.

ESTABLISHED IN 1920

It is never a good plan to swap horses while crossing a stream of water.—Abraham Lincoln.

Teaching Cleanliness.

Observers of the New York infant paralysis epidemic emphasize the class relation between dirty streets and tenements and the spread of the disease. Soap and water are not favorable to this contagion or any other. There is a lesson here for every community, even our own. While the ordinary town has no such slums as those of New York to constitute a disease peril, the problem of dirt and disease exists to a certain extent everywhere.

A love of cleanliness is inborn with many people. They may be poor in this world's goods, but their little cottage is scrubbed and combed until the floors wear thin. Many doctors' bills are saved in such homes.

Unfortunately there are many others who seem to live content and joyous amid dirt and disorder. Such a home is a fertile breeding place of germs and a disease peril for whole neighborhoods. Anyone who suggests a clean-up is resented as officious.

Cleanliness can be taught in school life and it is quite as essential as arithmetic or grammar. If the children from shiftless homes can be made to feel that their dirty faces and clothes are a far worse disgrace than the most ragged and tattered garments, a life long blessing to themselves and the community has been conferred. They can be made to envy and admire cleanliness as something that is associated with comfortable living and the good things of life.

Once that impression is lodged in a child's mind, the youngster will somehow manage to make a presentable appearance in the school room. The arithmetic and geography may be forgotten, but the visible object lesson of cleanliness sticks. It makes all the difference between a family that is rising and one that is sinking in the scale.

There is keen Republican disappointment at the manly statement of A. P. Sandles in support of Former Governor James M. Cox, that he will support Cox with all his ability, and his assurance that he knows Cox will be re-elected. His statement carries further weight in the announced purpose that he will not be a candidate for or accept any office during the next term of Governor Cox.

Executive Chairman Edwin Jones overcame the administration opposition to his re-election on the Republican state central committee. He will be ditched at the organization meeting. There is a tendency to unload all the regulars now, and cater to the former Progressives. Herick's defeat of Daugherty indicates that party regularity does not pay so well as filtration with organized leaders of the crowds that personally profit in temperance and anti-prohibition agitation.

Armies of Prisoners.

(Ohio State Journal)

Over 2,000,000 men are held as prisoners of war by the European belligerents. Of these, Germany has 1,500,000; Russia, 1,500,000; Austria, 1,000,000; and France, England and Italy the remainder of the over 5,000,000 prisoners. So there are more men in prison than in battle. One can hardly estimate the amount of food this vast army of prisoners demands. John R. Mott, who gives these figures, has recently visited all the prison camps, and says the prisoners are given the same rations the soldiers get. Here is one testimony to the mercy of war that ought to operate in the terms of peace. Whatever may be said of the carnage of war in the field, humanity keeps up in the camps.

A New Alliance.

An alliance is said to have been formed between Russia, Great Britain and Persia. A partnership on terms of mutual equality between a lion, a lady and a lamb would be as hard to conceive as an ill-assorted entente like this. The trident lady might be able to hold her own, but the most likely union between the lion and the Persian lamb would be one whereby the latter should find itself inside the former. The policy of Russia in Central Asia is one of assimilation, not necessarily benevolent. Russian immigration into Turkestan has assumed proportions comparable to the exodus from our Eastern States to the Great West in the second quarter of the last century. Persia lies in the line of least resistance to this force.—Philadelphia Record.

Amusements

Vogel's Minstrels.

John W. Vogel's minstrels played to two fair-sized audiences at the Auditorium Saturday. The Vogel minstrel this year has been augmented by the addition of a bare leg ballet and a chorus of opera singers. Mr. Vogel has styled his show "Japland, or the Garden of the Mikado." It is the best show by far ever staged by Mr. Vogel and the company gives a really clever performance. The Vogel show starts in on a big time circuit, opening in Detroit today for a week. They will then play Toledo and Cleveland for a week each.

The Auditorium.

Grace Valentine, the charming and gifted young stage and screen artist, who has been featured in several Metro productions, will make her debut on the Metro program as a full-fledged star in "Dorian's Divorce," a five-part feature which will be presented at the Auditorium today and tomorrow.

Since she was a tiny mite of a thing Miss Valentine has been noted for her daring. Among her diversions in Los Angeles was aviation. She was the first girl to make a flight of any considerable height or duration there, and her interest in flying was so intense that she determined to learn to operate a machine herself.

It was while flying about five hundred feet in the air that she struck an air pocket and her machine suddenly dived to the ground. Many aviators have lost their lives through a similar experience, but Miss Valentine succeeded in making her machine volplane before she fell half the distance.

"Dorian's Divorce," is a story of society, high finance and mystery, and deals with a man's sacrifice for the wife of his bosom. There is not a dull moment in the entire production, and will be a treat for those who appreciate the best in motion pictures. In addition to this feature the 11th chapter of "Gloria's Romance," with Billie Burke, will be shown.

"Linger Longer Lucy."

Billy (Singer) Clifford and his merry company of clever artists will be the offering at the Auditorium, matinee and night on Saturday, Aug. 19, in the merry musical satire, "Linger Longer Lucy."

Billy is well known to the theatre loving public of this city, and is offering this season an attraction even higher above the usual high standard maintained by him, and "Linger Longer Lucy," has proven the greatest success of his career, having toured the country for forty weeks, the past season, and being one of the few attractions that gave universal satisfaction.

It is a mixture of light comedy with musical interruptions, of which there are sixteen, and none of which intrude upon the other, and this pleasing combination with all suggestiveness removed, forms the nucleus of a very pleasant two hours of fun and enjoyment.

There are twelve tuneful, catchy songs like of the kind that linger in your mind for many moons. A lady brass band and orchestra is carried with the company. The band will play a parade and concert on the streets.

Alhambra, Tonight and Tomorrow.

"Common Ground," a Jesse L. Lasky production, has been selected as the title for the second photoplay in which the excellent dramatic artist, Marie Doro, will be seen at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow. It is a Paramount Program release.

This thrilling drama of social and political conditions was written especially for the star by Marian Fairfax, the distinguished playwright, and produced under the personal direction of William C. DeMille. In this photoplay, Miss Doro will be seen as The Kid, a product of the slums, employed as an expert "slipper-on" in an artificial flower factory. How love develops her, both mentally and spiritually—how she eventually blossoms forth as a beautiful young woman, is the central theme of this stirring picture.

Miss Doro is supported by a cast of unusual excellence, including such prominent artists as Thomas Meighan, Theodore Roberts, Mary McEvoy, Horace B. Carpenter, Vera McEvers, and Mrs. Lewis McCord.

Miss Belle Dutton, aged 76, retired in Cleveland after 55 years of public school teaching.

In the Midst of Drink But None of It for Him

A Neal Institute Graduate Who Is "Making Good" in Business

"I am not drinking a thing," writes one of last summer's graduates of the Neal Institute, who is now located in Chicago. "Of course, this is a bad town for that game and my duties take me around with it a good deal, but when I think of the Hell that it has made me go through, to say nothing of the disgrace and humiliation I have caused my friends, it makes me shudder."

Over 4,000 former drinkers, many like this man who was saved from excessive drink to go into business, have reason to rejoice over the personal work done at the Neal Institute in the East Central Division which comprise Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. There is nothing like the Neal Treatment for the quick transformation of intense craving for liquor into loathing for everything alcoholic just as pronounced.

The Neal Treatment is a physician's harmless vegetable remedy, taken internally, with no dangerous hypodermic injections. Three days of this treatment changes craving desire for liquor into intense dislike of everything alcoholic. There is no publicity. You are urged to investigate.

Society

A wonderfully artistic little party was given Friday afternoon by Miss Miriam Smith of South street, Zanesville, in honor of Miss Louise Crawford, whose marriage to Ernest Feldner of Newark will be solemnized in the very near future. The rooms were most charmingly decorated with golden glow and other seasonal flowers, and the color scheme was carried out in the refreshments, where heart-shaped cakes and heart-shaped ice cream were served. The event was in the nature of a thimble bee and Miss Smith provided towels for each girl to hem, and these were presented to the bride-elect.

Among the stitchers were Misses Louise Crawford, Marie Crane, Ina Francis, Lucy Broomhall, Aliene White, Verna Lowry, Edna Garrett, Alice Achauer, Rose Snider, Virginia Sharer, Mrs. Edward Atwell, Mrs. Judson Loomis, Miss Laborna Karmaghan and her guest, Miss Baldwin of Akron, and Miss Lora Palmer and her guest, Miss Agnes Ludman of near Columbus.

A musicale has been arranged for the Moundbuilders' Country Club Tuesday evening. A delightful program has been arranged which will begin at 8 o'clock.

POULTRY POINTERS

Keep the feed troughs clean. There cannot be too great a variety in the bill of fare.

The heavy laying hen has a keen appetite and a great thirst. There is a large amount of albumen in wheat than in any other grain.

Egg shells should be powdered and mixed with the mash.

Too much salt in the food will produce a great thirst and is apt to cause a ruptured crop.

Hulled oats are the most desirable, clipped oats next best, and ordinary oats last. It is better to feed the latter soaked for an hour in cold or warm water, and after drained, mixed with enough bran to make a crumbly mass.

In introducing a new food to the fowls, it should be given gradually; sudden changes in the bill of fare are apt to cause a loss of appetite. Boiled vegetables should not be fed too liberally or they will produce bowel troubles.

Sour stomachs are due to over-feeding.

A pint of linseed meal to twenty-five hens mixed in the soft feed every third day is excellent for both eggs and health, besides adding finer lustre to the feathers.

Close observation by the feeder and intelligent application of the same is the secret of feeding for eggs profits.

Wheat, corn and oats are the best poultry grain.

What Housewives Are Glad to Know

Home Cookery

Jelly Cakes With Nut Filling.

Make the cake as usual and just before rolling fill with a stiff fudge icing made by boiling together two cups of brown sugar, a cup of sweet milk, lump of butter the size of an egg and a teaspoonful of vanilla when done. Roll until it is thick without scorching and then beat as you do fudge. Just before it threatens to get too hard turn in a cupful of nut meats of any kind and spread on the warm cake. Roll and slice with a hot knife.

Calif's Liver En Casserole.

The liver should be left whole, weighing two pounds. Lard with strips of salt pork. Place in the casserole on a layer of chopped vegetables, using a cupful of celery, one-half cupful each of turnip, carrot and onion (all measured after chopping) and a little parsley. Surround with the same, add a scant teaspoonful salt, one-fourth as much pepper and a cupful of hot water. Cover and cook in a moderate oven for one hour.

White Turnips and Peas.

Select white turnips the size of apples, as round as possible. Peel carefully and cut off a slice at the bottom so they will rest firmly on a plate. Then scoop out the center and boil in salt water, being careful not to let them get so well done that they will fall apart. Fill the center with cooked peas and serve on a small, round plate with a little dolly beneath the turnip cups.

Stewed Lamb's Hearts.

Trim and soak hearts in cold water. Make a dressing of breadcrumbs seasoned with onion, herbs, salt and pepper. Drain the hearts, stuff with the dressing and skewer the top to close the opening. Put in a stewpan, half cover with boiling water, cover the pan and put in the oven to simmer slowly until tender. Thicken the gravy, flavor with table sauce, boil up and serve.

Blueberry Tea Cakes.

One egg, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, salt, one-third of a cupful of shortening, one and a half cupfuls of sweet milk, one and a half teaspoonfuls of soda, two teaspoonfuls of cream tartar, rounded a little; three cupfuls of flour and, lastly, one pint of blueberries.

Red Raspberry Muffins.

Two cupfuls of flour, a pinch of salt, one cupful of sweet milk, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one egg. Stir well and add, last of all, one cupful of red raspberries. Bake in muffin tins in a hot oven.

Choose the Corset With Great Care

Two things should be considered in buying a corset—whether or not it is entirely comfortable and whether or not it gives you a shapely form. If it is not comfortable, by wearing it you may seriously injure your health. If it is not suited to your build it will materially detract from your personal appearance, and it is the duty of all of us to look as well as we can. By this is not meant that we should spend just as much as possible on our clothes. It is not necessarily the woman who spends the most money on her clothes who makes the best appearance. The woman who chooses her clothes thoughtfully with regard to materials, styles and colors will always be well dressed and will appear at her best for the reason that she will have no need to think about her clothes while she is wearing them, but can turn her whole attention to other matters.

A well fitted, comfortable corset has more to do with a woman's appearance than many of us imagine. Discomfort makes ease and grace impossible, and an ill fitting corset will spoil the appearance of a pretty dress.

Milady's Boudoir

Many women do not develop as they should because they do not breathe properly. The right sort of deep breathing is diaphragmatic but not abdominal. It inflates every part of the lungs, but does not move the lower walls of the abdomen. It brings into play the waist muscles but not those above or below the waist line.

The diaphragm, as you may remember from your physiology, is the big muscle which makes a sort of wall between the abdominal cavity and the chest cavity. That is the muscle which should be raised when you breathe deeply and naturally. The upper part of the chest, which is lifted by the superficial breathing that fills only the upper lobe of the lungs, does not move at all when a person breathes, stands and sits naturally.

If you want to know whether you are breathing as you ought to breathe, lie on your back with a paper weight on your stomach. Your natural inhalations and exhalations should lift the object while the part of the body immediately above it remains perfectly quiet.

Take vigorous exercise which will increase the circulation of the blood by drawing it to the active muscles and compel deeper breathing than is customary. With every heart beat the blood passes through the lungs to be purified. Since vigorous exercise makes the heart contract more violently and therefore sends more blood through the lungs the latter instinctively demands more fresh air to attend to the process of purification.

Watch a child running, a boy wrestling and you will see that each is breathing harder than usual. The breath may be taken in the wrong way—through the mouth instead of through the nose and in quick short pants instead of smoothly and rhythmically, but nevertheless there is proof of nature's attempt to give more air to the blood and body.

Our Boys and Girls

Nearly all children have a tendency to suck their fingers. Try this method and see if it doesn't work out successfully. Buy one-half yard of surgeon's plaster at a drug store. It comes on a spool about two inches wide; then cut a strip about one-quarter inch wide, or wider if the child's fingers are broad, then cut this half yard strip in short lengths; then take one and stick right over the top of fingers and over the nail, then another strip and put right around the first strip and down the knuckle.

The surgeon's plaster will stick and be firm. Do this every night before the child goes to bed, for one month. She may try to suck the plaster at first. If so, put on another piece in the morning, making sure never to let the child's fingers be without the plaster.

SHOE STYLE

Backed Up By Shoe Quality

—In keeping in step with the trend of novelty in shoe style we are not pushing down quality here—There's no masquerading under the thin veneer of deceit in our shoes. Men, women and children will always get exactly what they expect in both looks and wear.

DAM STILL HOLDS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Ashville, N. C., Aug. 14.—Later reports from Lake Toxaway today state that the danger from the flood of water released by the dam is not as great as was first indicated. Only a part of the top of the dam was carried away and not all the water in the lake escaped into the valley. No great damage has been done.

Had Terrible Pains in Kidneys and Back.

Dear Mr. Editor—I want to write you about "Anuric." I was very sick, could hardly be up; I was in bed most of the time. Had terrible pains in my kidneys and back, so much so that I had to scream sometimes when I was sitting down and wanted to get up, the pain was so great. I had tried a well-known kidney medicine but it didn't help me. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets so I thought I would try them. I took only one box of the Tablets, and my back is now free from pain and I can work and take care of my family. I feel I cannot say enough for this medicine. Mrs. Wm. KELLER, Windham, O.

Note: This "Anuric" is adapted especially for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine and urinary troubles. The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's great institution, at Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested this prescription and have been with one accord successful in eradicating these troubles, and in most cases absolutely curing the diseased kidneys.

Patients having once used "Anuric" at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, have repeatedly sent back for more. Such a demand has been created that Dr. Pierce has decided to put "Anuric" in the drug stores of this country, in a ready-to-use form. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood cleanser and alternative that starts the liver and stomach into vigorous action. It thus assists the body to make rich, red blood, which feeds the heart, nerves, brain and organs of the body. You feel clean, strong and strong.

THE NEW FORD HAS ARRIVED

During the past few weeks there have been many rumors and much speculation about the 1917 Model Ford, but with the advent of the new demonstrators at the Ford Agency, there can no longer be any doubt as to the superiority of this over previous models.

Henry B. Coen, Limited Agent for Licking County says that the SERVICEABLE MOTOR and VANADIUM STEEL PARTS upon which the reputation of the Universal Car has been established, HAVE NOT BEEN CHANGED. The changes that have been made have not detracted in any way from the high standard of efficiency perfected by Henry Ford.

In addition to the undisputed power, reliability and service, the Ford is now good to look at. Crowned fenders, larger radiator, with black enameled shell and stream line hood.

The most remarkable part of the whole sensation is the fact that the reduction in price, announced August 1st, is still in effect, and while the Ford Motor Company guarantees against further reduction in prices before Aug. 1st, 1917, they also state that prices may be advanced at any time.

Mr. Coen also states that while he has been extremely fortunate in securing demonstrators at the present time, it will be a day or two before his stock cars begin to arrive, and while he expects to be furnished enough cars to fill all requirements, orders will be filled in the same order in which they are taken.

An effort will be made to get the 1917 meeting for Springfield.

In Japan devilfish weighing up to 200 pounds are sometimes caught. These fish are amphibious, they are often seen wabbling on their tentacles like giant spiders, in search of patches of sweet potatoes. The natives kill them with clubs. In the water they are caught in jars lowered to the bottom, which the octopus enters, thinking them a good treat from which to catch his food.

Except perhaps for the old slave market at Milledgeville, the city of Savannah has, in the foundation of the Pulaski Hotel, one of Georgia's most notable mementoes of the day when men were sold. The basement of this ancient hostelry is honey-combed with brick-up cells used before the war by slave owners for the safe-keeping of their slaves.

In recent years valuable coal deposits have been discovered in Spitzbergen. The extent of the deposits appears to be enormous. It is estimated after careful examination that two strata in the neighborhood of the floods between Advent Bay and Green Harbor contain more than a billion tons of coal. There appears to be also a third stratum in the same neighborhood.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known Local Druggist Says Everybody is Using Old-Time Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THAT KNIFE-LIKE PAIN

Have you a lame back, aching day after night? Do you feel sharp pains after stooping? Are the kidneys sore? Is their action irregular? Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the medicine recommended by so many Newark people. Read this case.

G. W. Coulter, manager of the L. H. Swisher Cigar Co., 43 German St., Newark, says: "Kidney trouble came on me like the thrust of a knife. A sharp pain caught me through the small of my back and for the year and a half following I was in poor health. I couldn't work steadily and felt badly. I doctor'd, wore plasters, in fact, did everything but didn't get relief. Mornings I had to drag myself around and it was hard for me to dress. I couldn't stoop or bend. Often I had to lie down again. I felt so utterly worn out and weak and I had rheumatic pains in my limbs too. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me a lasting cure."

MERCURY DROPS FOLLOWING RAIN EARLY SUNDAY

Sunday Newark people really lived following a big drop in the temperature and consequent relief from the great heat of the past several weeks.

The big heat wave which has held sway since the first part of July, was broken and wraps really felt comfortable early in the morning and in the evening. Sunday morning about 3:00 o'clock a heavy rain and electrical storm visited the city, the rain coming down in torrents. The early morning remained cloudy, but even the breaking through the clouds of the sun did not bring back the sickening heat, and it seemed as if the city resumed normal activity after a long siesta.

The motor parties were many and Buckeye Lake was thronged Saturday night and Sunday by one of the largest week end crowds of the season. A full moon added to the beauty and enjoyment.

Fair weather is promised for a few days, with a slowly rising temperature, but the weather man feels that the real heat spell is broken. Temperature at midnight last night was 58 degrees and at 7:00 o'clock this morning 66 degrees. By 10:00 o'clock the mercury had climbed to 72 degrees.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to finish and stimulate sluggish kidneys also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Among the recent gifts announced at the University of Chicago is that of $2,500 by an unnamed giver, to enable the department of geography to make a scientific study in Asia.

LABOR UNIONS PLAN BIG CELEBRATION LABOR DAY, SEPT. 4

The next big event on "The Calendar of Events" is the Labor Day celebration and all indications point to a larger celebration than heretofore attempted. The various committees are completing their portion of the work and in a few days will be enabled to announce a full program of events.

Nearly every organization affiliated with the central body has signified its willingness to turn out in the parade and it is safe to say that that feature of the celebration will eclipse any former effort. The line of march will traverse the downtown streets and disband in plenty of time to allow every person to get to the fair grounds in time for a picnic dinner. Dancing will start in the pavillion at 12:00 o'clock noon and continue until 11:00 p. m. with one of the best five-piece orchestras in Newark and the best of order will be maintained. The sport events will take place on the race track in front of the grandstand, a complete program of which will be announced later.

There will be no soliciting of funds among the merchants or donations of articles for the prize winners and yet all prizes will be paid in cash. This is a labor celebration and the laboring people have arranged to take care of it in a financial way without the usual custom of soliciting aid, although voluntary contributions in any amount will be accepted.

The committee on privileges consists of W. M. Morgan, H. C. Watson and Frank Dudgeon of the fair board and they will announce through the daily papers when a meeting will be held to sell concessions.

There will be no charge for admission into the fair grounds or grandstand and the best of order will be maintained throughout the grounds. Watch the advertising columns of the daily papers for complete program.

NEW MANAGER IS APPOINTED FOR THE MAZDA

Harold Brennan, proprietor of the Mazda theatre in West Main street, has named W. S. Sedgwick as manager of that motion picture house. This step was necessary owing to the fact that Mr. Brennan is forced to give his entire attention to his Electric Shop in North Third street. Manager Sedgwick has had considerable experience in theatrical work and will endeavor to book nothing but first class attractions. He will be ably assisted by Miss Marguerite Brown, who will continue to act as treasurer and secretary.

Manager Sedgwick has arranged for an exclusive V. L. S. E. service with an additional two-reel comedy. The Pathe pictures will also be exhibited weekly and the best of attention will be given Mazda patrons. Maurice Costello and Norma Tallmadge will be seen today in "The Crown Prince's Double."

DEEP ROOTED, BUT THEY SURRENDER

MRS. JANE MYRTLE FOUND A FRIEND IN NERV-WORTH.

This endorser says she had to take Nerv-Worth but "a short time" in order to get relief. Yet her nervous ills were very serious. They had lasted eight years. Read this:

"My trouble was nervous indigestion. I would have pains in back, chest, through bowels. At times the pains would be so severe I'd fall on the floor. Would vomit, poor sleeper—not more than two hours sleep at night. For the last year I would get awful headaches. Have been troubled this way for eight years. "Have taken Nerv-Worth for a short time and all my troubles are gone. No pains, sleep good, rested in the morning. "After doctoring a long time I find nothing ever reached my case but Nerv-Worth. I certainly recommend the medicine. I give Nerv-Worth the credit of regaining my health."
